

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

SATURDAY EVENING, FEB. 4, 1882.

Now all the bold, young liddle bucks,
To martial life inclined,
By interviewing Neddle Fitz,
An opening will find.
Unto the meeting Monday night,
They all are asked to come
And help make up a company
To follow life and drum.

Humpty Dumpty Coming.

Nick Roberts' famous Humpty Dumpty, troupe, the most mirth provoking organization of its kind in the country, will be here on the eleventh inst, with the full company, which includes many specialists of national reputation. The troupe will give a first-class entertainment and you will miss a great deal of fun if you do not see it. There will be a matinee on Saturday afternoon at reduced prices. The Chattanooga Times says:

"A crowded house greeted the very popular Nick Roberts' Humpty Dumpty company last evening and all were entertained and delighted. Every act was well performed and it would seem invidious to single out any special actor or actress where each scene was such an admirable success. Many acts were heartily cheered and side-splitting laughter greeted every scene. Many of the costumes were elegant, whilst others were infinitely grotesque. We feel sure the company in attendance last night will be happy to greet this troupe again. The Nick Roberts silver cornet band is without doubt the finest on the road and one of the best that ever visited Chattanooga. The company leaves this morning for Knoxville."

THE MURDER TRIAL.

Argument Closed and the Case to be Submitted to the Jury this Afternoon.

Special to the DAILY BULLETIN.

CATLETTSBURG, Ky., February 4, 1882.—The argument in the case of Ellis Craft is very nearly completed, the defense having already closed. S. J. Kinner is making the closing speech for the prosecution. The case will be given to the jury sometime this afternoon. The argument on both sides has been able and eloquent. There is considerable speculation and difference of opinion as to what the verdict will be.

The most intense excitement prevails here to-day. The incoming trains are crowded with people who come to see the closing scenes of the trial. It is considered very probable that Ellis will not be tried for his part in the murders until the next term of the court. The military, it is now thought, will leave for home the early part of next week.

LATER.

The Jury Return a Verdict of Guilty After an Absence of Forty Minutes and Fix the Punishment at Death.

Special to the DAILY BULLETIN.

CATLETTSBURG, Ky., February 4, 5 p. m.—At three o'clock the jury after an absence of forty minutes from the court room returned with the following verdict: "We the jury find the defendant guilty as charged in the indictment and fix the punishment with death. J. W. Farmer, foreman."

About six hundred persons were crowded into the court room and when the verdict was rendered, there was intense excitement and loud applause.

Craft was very much affected and made a speech which consumed eleven minutes. He said: "No man within the sound of my voice is more innocent than I am, and I would to God I could have died to save them."

The Funding Bill Passes the Senate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 4, 1882.—The Three Per Cent. Funding bill passed the Senate by a majority of twenty.

Robbed by Masked Men.

AKRON, O., February 4, 1882.—Three masked men entered the house of Isaac Markly, a wealthy farmer, and after clubbing him and binding him in a chair robbed the house of a gold watch and $500 in money.

Definite News From Commander Delong.

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 4, 1882.—Lieutenant Danenhauer has sent a despatch announcing the finding of a record cached by commander Delong as follows:

SATURDAY, October 1, 1881.—Fourteen of the officers and men of the Jeannette reached this hut Wednesday, September 28th, and having been forced to wait for the river to freeze over, are proceeding to cross to the west side this morning, on their journey to reach some settlement on the Lena river. I have two days' provisions, but having been fortunate enough thus far to get game in our pressing needs, we have no fear for the future. Our party are all well except Hans Eriksen, whose toes have been amputated in consequence of frost bite. Other records will be found in several huts on the east side of the river, along which we have come from the north. GEORGE W. DELONG.

Three other records have been found. Eriksen died October 7th. The party were in great distress for want of food. Noros and Nindemann were sent ahead for relief October 9th; they marched South fifteen days, and were found in a starving condition October 24th by three natives, who took them to a settlement. They could not make themselves understood.

Guiteau—No Hope for a New Trial.

Special to the DAILY BULLETIN.

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 4, 1882.—The motion for a new trial in the Guiteau case was made before Judge Cox yesterday, and was argued at length by Scoville. Judge Cox reserved his decision but the general opinion is that there is not the least ground of hope for a new trial. It is expected now that the prisoner will be sentenced early next week, and it is considered certain that neither the government nor friends of the assassin will not permit the body to be exhibited after the execution.

THE FERRY MATTER.

Memorial of the Citizens of Aberdeen, to the Maysville Council.

The following paper on the subject of ferry rates between Aberdeen and this city was presented to the city council at the regular meeting last Thursday evening. It was referred to the committee on wharves and ferries with instructions to confer with a similar committee from the Aberdeen council, and make a full report in the premises at the next stated meeting.

To the Committee on Ferries—Gentlemen: We earnestly solicit you to establish a legal rate of ferriage from Aberdeen to Maysville Ky., and will suggest the following as a reasonable rate:
